Anthology from the California Writers Club San Francisco Peninsula Branch wins national recognition through the INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD®!

(Orinda, CA) -- The INDEPENDENT PRESS AWARD (IPA) has recognized Fault Zone: Reverse as the winner in the Anthology Category of their annual indies competition. Laurel Anne Hill, the Editor-in-Chief, was delighted to inform CWC anthology contributors that they all are now nationally recognized “award-winning” authors and poets.

This year, the contest had entries worldwide. Authors and publishers from countries as far flung as Australia, Canada, Germany, Ireland, Jordan, New Zealand and Switzerland participated. “We are thrilled to be highlighting key titles representing global independent publishing,” said IPA awards sponsor Gabrielle Olczak.

The IPA competition is judged by experts from different aspects of the book industry, including publishers, writers, editors, book cover designers and professional copywriters. IPA Award Winners and Distinguished Favorites are selected based on overall excellence.

Fault Zone: Reverse, published by Sand Hill Review Press, consists of a total of 47 pieces of short fiction, short creative nonfiction and poetry. Topics range from a cross-county hitchhiker sleeping with San Francisco pigeons to old-growth oak trees plotting against humans who have despoiled their California valley.
